Plans for the 2010 National Muster are in full swing. The site selected is a few miles north of State College, Pennsylvania and will easily handle all of SMART member ship should they choose to attend. Meals, entertainment, and tours are all 'in the works'. Early registration is the best way to insure that your place will be intact and final planning and budgeting can be implemented. Should you need to cancel a reservation, separate cancellation for parking must also be made. Complete refunds (less Admin Fee) are available for cancellation prior to August 2, 2010. Information concerning your visit and associated travels in the area will be forthcoming in successive issues of the Traveler.
